I'm a visiting professor at Capilano University, here for the semester.
I'm looking for housing from Oct. 13 - Dec. 17th.
I'm very responsible and willing to house sit or rent. Close to Capilano University would be a plus with access to public transportation.

Visiting professor at CapU looking for temporary accommodation. Contact info@blueridgeca.org

Some folks scooping poop into bags, then dumping the bags in our lovely trails and forests. #lovewhereyoulive - do the right thing and put it in the bin.

The Sharing Garden donated over 300 pounds of produce to the Harvest Project. Find out more, sign up for their newsletter and join their
